

eTwinning 2023-2024

Project name: ALTERER

(Artificial Intelligence for Educational purposes)

Pupils from 7 countries (8 schools) write a collaborative story, based on Pinocchio's tale.

Every pupil writes his/her name & country and then adds 2-3 phrases continuing the story

The story of Ainocchio

A multinational eTwinning team, named Aipeto (Artificial Intelligence Pupils ETwinning Organization – paraphrasing Geppetto) builds a robot. They name it Ainocchio (paraphrasing Pinocchio). The robot looks like a 13 years old boy. They provide it with advanced AI capabilities. Ainocchio is adorable. He can communicate with others. He even wants to become a real boy. But he has some bugs in his program. Because of some translation problems in the Aipeto team, Ainocchio sometimes tells lies. As a consequence, Ainocchio's nose becomes bigger every time he tells lies. One day, a big lightning storm caused tremendous thunder that hit Aipeto lab. No one was hurt. But Ainocchio acquired some miraculous powers. Every time he closes his eyes, he can travel in time and space whenever and wherever he wants. To return to Aipeto lab, he has just to blink his eyes again.

Ainocchio likes the lab environment and the pupils. He has a great time talking with them. He is determined not to go anywhere. But one day he was very tired. He sat down and closed his eyes.

Nikolina, Croatia

Suddenly, he woke up in an alley in an unknown city. The city was full of people hurrying somewhere. He was lost and didn't know where to go. He walked lost until someone tapped him on the shoulder. It was fairy Nives.

Petra, Croatia

She was a beautiful fairy with a cheerful spirit. She gave him a friendly smile and asked him if he needed help. Ainocchio smiled back and asked her if she could show him the way. They walked like that for a while and finally ended up in a dark street.

Vanesa, Croatia

Ainocchio was suspicious of that and before he could ask anything fairy Nives knocked him to the floor and robbed him. She laughed evilly and started turning into a cobra. She crawled away with his money.

Vilius, Lithuania

As Fairy Nives was running away from Ainocchio, he remembered that he had powers that could help him travel back in time, rethink his decisions and keep his money. He closed his eyes, he traveled back in time and again, she gave him a friendly smile and asked him if he needed help.

Vesta, Lithuania

Then Ainocchio remembered that the last time he met a fairy he got robbed. So he decided to ignore Nives and continued to walk away. But the fairy became really angry and decided to teach him a lesson.

Daniela, Lithuania

As he was walking away, he realized that she started chasing after him while screaming at him out of anger. Ainocchio was scared and didn't know what to do. He started walking faster and faster and realized she wasn't behind him anymore.

Gytė, Lithuania

He started to walk slower as a big sigh of relief ran through his whole body. He started to rethink everything that happened in the last few minutes when suddenly everything went black.

Kasia Poland

He had no idea what actually happened. Then he slowly opened his eyes and saw the door. He had no idea if he should open it. On one hand, he wanted to see what was behind the door, but at the same time he was afraid.

Zosia Poland

He opened the door rapidly and saw his best friends. They were waving to him and encouraging him to go with them. When he walked through the door he suddenly felt weird and he passed out.

Tosia Poland

When Ainocchio woke up, he was pinned to a chair. He didn't know what just happened. A few moments later, the little "almost" boy saw fairy Nives and realized that seeing his best friends was just an illusion.

Polyzois, Greece Irakleio Attikis

"You thought that you could get away from me, little boy," said Nives and looked at him with evil eyes. "I want your powers for myself and I will do anything to steal it from you". Immediately she taped his eyebrows, so that Ainocchio couldn't blink his eyes and escape.

Kasia Poland

He was exhausted. Nives took away all his powers, as she said earlier. Still, Ainocchio refused to give up. He was ready for whatever would come.

Olek Poland

Determined to regain his powers he started asking around about Nives. But no one nearby had seen her so he decided to look somewhere else.

Evdokia, Greece Irakleio Attikis

He then thought to himself: "Is it really worth chasing the fairy around? Perhaps stealing these abilities gives her happiness?" Suddenly he heard a noise. These thoughts left his mind as he saw Nives standing by a building.

Olek Poland

Nives looked disoriented. She couldn't control Ainocchio's powers. "Give me my powers back" he shouted.

Zosia G Poland

Nives didn't want to give it back to Ainocchio. She started to think about what to do and she came up with an idea. Then, she started running away from Ainocchio so he couldn't chase, determined not to go anywhere.

Olek Poland

He knew he was too slow to catch up with her so he started yelling for help and people around him started to chase Nives.

Thanasis, Greece Irakleio, Attikis

All of a sudden, Ainocchio and the people ended up in the magical forest, where there are purple trees, bright green grass, vibrant flowers and the home of Fairy Nives. However, the people started to destroy her land and Fairy Nives decided to activate the plan for the intruders. She chose to throw the purple grape bomb which explodes into robot wasps.

Nikolas K. Greece Irakleio Attikis

All of them were surrounded by the wasps, but there was Ainocchio knocking Nives down with a right hook punch which also knocked the wasps and took his powers back. It seemed that nothing could stop him until a giant robot named Bob appeared.

Orestis,I Greece Irakleio Attikis

Bob was a robot which was created in a lab by a crazy scientist. Bob hated Ainocchio and as soon as he saw him, they started fighting. Ainocchio used all his AI powers, so at the end beated the giant robot. When the fight between Ainocchio and Bob ended, Nives stood up from the ground and realized that she had gained her own powers.

Zosia G Poland

Ainocchio suddenly realized that he could read minds. He couldn't focus on anything because he heard loud voices in his head. He started shouting out of anger and bumping his head on to the walls.

Tosia Poland

Then, the little boy started thinking about the pupils who created him. Suddenly loud voices stopped occupying his head. Now he could peacefully focus on Nives' thoughts.

Kasia Poland

Nives' told him that he could teleport anywhere he wanted. He started thinking about the Aipeto lab. He was far away from home. He really wanted to be by the pupils again.

Orestis G., Greece Irakleio Attikis

Ainocchio was hurt by Bob but he did not care at all. He tried a lot of times to teleport to his home and meet the pupils again but it didn't work. Somehow, Bob had damaged Ainocchio's system. He had to fix it fast so he could teleport back home and escape from this chaos.

George A., Greece Irakleio Attikis

So he decided to leave from there and try to find some help. After half an hour walking, he found a weird hut. He decided to go inside and when he got in, he saw a former pupil of Aipeto Lab, Sebastian, cooking on a stove. When Sebastian saw Ainocchio he recognised him and hugged him with joy. Ainocchio told him about his adventures and his problem and Sebastian promised to help and try to fix him.

Theodoros G., Greece Irakleio Attikis.

Sebastian easily fixed Ainocchio's system, as promised. So, Ainocchio was quickly teleported to Aipeto's lab which was his home. Unfortunately, he discovered that a robot named Rob, had kidnapped a pupil whom he considered as a father because he was one of his creators. Determined to free him, Ainocchio began to lie in order to grow his nose and use it as a sword.

Tosia, Poland

He was telling such bad lies that his nose not only grew but got wider and stronger. Then Ainocchio used one of Aipeto's tools to cut the "sword" off of his face. When he picked it, he was ready for the battle with Rob.

Maria, Italy

Ainocchio, with his sword-nose, goes to look for Rob and when he finds him he challenges him to a duel with swords: Ainocchio with his sword-nose and Rob with a precious sword in plutammonium, a metal from the planet Mars. The duel would take place on St Patrick's Night at the top of the Eiffel Tower.

Themistoklis, Greece Irakleio Attikis

The battle started. Rob attacked first and hurt Ainocchio with his sword, but Ainocchio blinked his eyes and teleported behind Bob. Then he hit him with his sword-nose. As a result Rob lost his balance and fell off the Eiffel Tower.

Nina, Poland

Rob was falling down for really long seconds. His world was spinning. All he could see was an exceedingly beautiful sky filled with blinking, shiny stars. When he was about to hit the ground he suddenly stopped and now he is levitating faced up to ground. Confusing, he thought.

Francesco, Italy

Ainocchio, once he realized that Rob was falling, terrified, blinked his eyes again and traveled through time, returning to Aipeto's Lab.

Antonio, Italy

When he closed his eyes again, he found himself in a city of the future. He was in futuristic New York. He realized that all his bugs were fixed and almost became a human boy. He also met his robot friends who had become real.

Jacopo, Italy

Ainocchio realized how beautiful it was to be human, because he could have feelings that he never had and so he started to meet many boys. He started to ask for information about Aipeto Lab; Ainocchio wanted to meet Aipeto scientists.

Carlotta, Italy

So Ainocchio started a trip to Aipeto Lab. During the trip Ainocchio met Nives, a girl with blond hair, who would help Ainocchio to find Aipeto Lab. But this girl looked very similar to Fairy Nives. So Ainocchio was confused, and didn't know if it was a good idea to go with her or not.

Dimitris K, Greece Irakleio Attikis

Ainocchio decided to go with Nives. A couple of minutes later, while Ainocchio was talking to some boys, Nives grabbed a big rock and threw it to Ainocchio. He fell down and passed out.

Mariasole, Italy

Ainocchio understood that he shouldn't have trusted that girl who was actually fairy Nives. He felt stupid and he was very sad. But he understood that everyone makes mistakes.

Panagiota, Ilion Greece

That lesson made him become more responsible with his friendships and not trust everyone. Since then, he was happier and with more real friends by his side.

Digna, Lithuania

Ainocchio was so happy in life. He was so thankful for that lesson because it taught him not to trust everybody. He should have just a few wonderful friends, who are trustworthy.

Samuel, Italy

One year later he was on a trip with his new friends in Berlin, when he saw something strange. A woman was passing through a wall. He thought that this was only in his mind. But he was so curious that he walked away from his trip mates and went to the strange wall. But Fairy Nives came out from the wall and kicked him. He didn't expect that. Then she knocked Ainocchio down with a very strong punch in the middle of the face.

Simon, Sweden

When he woke up he was sitting on a chair, tied with a rope. In front of him there was a strange portal.

Henrik, Sweden

He tried to untie the rope, but in vain. Then, from the portal came an old man. The man explained that the portal was a time machine and then he left.

Adelia, Sweden

Ainocchio was confused and wondered who the man was and where he was from. Then he heard a strange noise from the portal. Fairy Nives stepped out of it. The area was suddenly changed to a lab.

Gerasimos, Greece Ilion

He was scared to open his eyes. Suddenly, he saw a young woman. The young woman told him not to be scared and gave him a lollipop. He was happy!

Nikos, Greece Ilion

After he ate the lollipop he started talking with the young woman. They were talking for hours about the future.

Normantas, Lithuania

The woman told Ainocchio that she is a traveler from the future. Ainocchio was very curious about the woman's stories and wondered if he could go back in time with that machine and meet his creators once again.

Panagiotis, Greece Irakleio Attikis

After that, the young woman told him that he could go back in time only if he passed some challenges. Then Ainocchio asked her what he had to do. But the young woman refused to tell him anything about the challenges.

Konstantina, Greece Ilion

Ainocchio was very excited to be able to go back in time. So, he tried to convince the young woman to help him. She thought for a while and asked him to bring her the rarest diamond in the world.

Ariadni, Irakleio Attikis Greece

Ainocchio realized that it was almost impossible to find the rarest diamond in the world. So he told her he couldn't do it. Then because she felt sympathy for him, she asked him to go without any reward. And so they began their journey to the future together.

Ioanna, Greece Irakleio Attikis

During their journey the time machine broke down...and they went to ancient Egypt! When they got off the time machine they were surprised! Around them there was only desert and huge pyramids. Ainocchio was very disappointed and desperate.

Ylenia, Italy

They walked to a pyramid, and in front of that they found a guard. They asked him what year was, and the guard suddenly died. So they decided to go into the pyramid, but they got lost almost immediately. They walked for an hour and found a sarcophagus. When they opened it, Tutankamon went out and attacked them.

Dmytro, Ukraine

They were afraid because they did not expect an attack from Tutankhamon. Pharaoh was chasing them. He was angry because they had dared to wake him. Ainocchio and the young woman ran away from him through the labyrinths and got lost. They walked around, looking for each other, calling out loud, but they were lucky and met at the exit.

Evdokia, Greece Irakleio Attikis

Suddenly just before he stepped out of the exit, Ainocchio lost consciousness. After he regained his senses, he looked around and came to the realization. He somehow was back to the lab in which he started his life. However this time, there were no pupils or ...any life. He was all alone. He saw a mirror. He walked towards it, yet he saw nothing. He couldn't see his reflection. He touched the mirror but felt nothing. He tried to break it but it wouldn't even crack. He then fell asleep. Upon waking up, he was with the pupils. He looked in the mirror again. He was now a real boy! He was very happy. He rushed to hug them all. He couldn't contain his happiness. His dreams finally became true.

The end!
